

Virtual Reality: HMD Pilot Tests

Philippines |
21 December 2018

Overview

Project Title	Pilot Testing of Virtual Reality through Head Mounted Display
Project Goal	Contribute to the APDRC's goal of managing and sharing of information by learning, documenting, improving and disseminating existing models and cases
Project Timeframe	01 June – 30 November 2018
Test Areas	Cebu City, Davao City, Laoag City, Makati City, Mandaluyong City, Pasay City, Pasig City, Quezon City, Tagaytay City, Bayombong (Nueva Vizcaya), Kalibu (Aklan), San Mateo (Rizal)
Funding	APDRC; IFRC

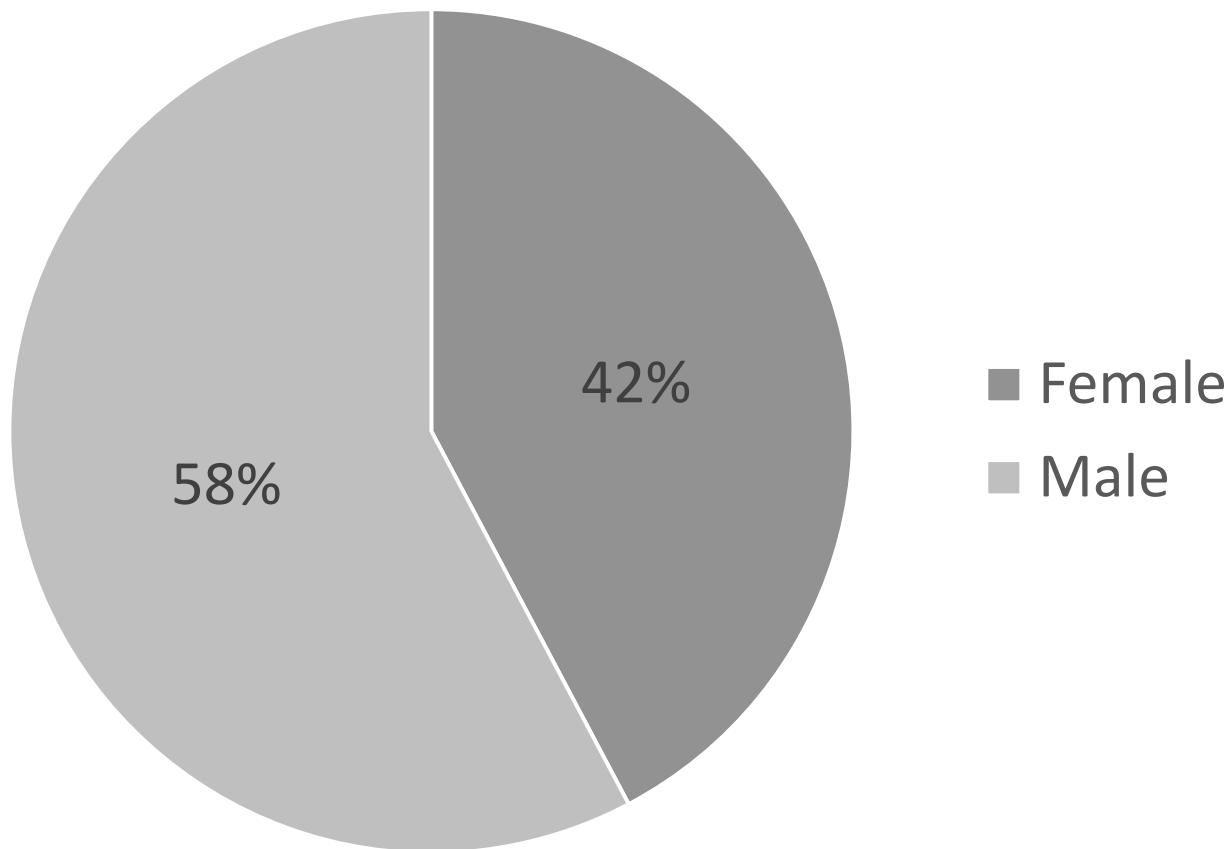

Volunteers + Logistics + Information Technology

Respondents Profile

Always First, Always Ready, Always There

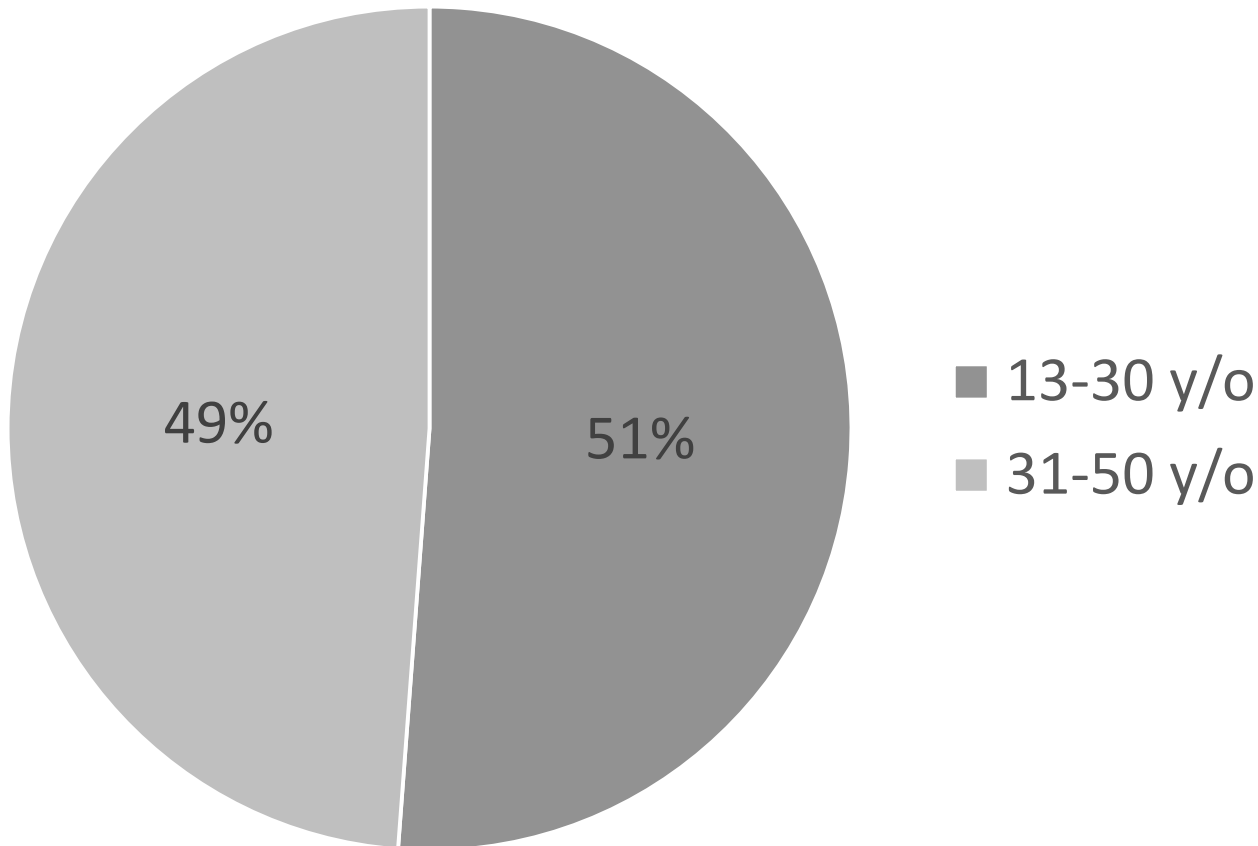

Respondents Profile: Sex

Respondents Profile: Age

Respondents Profile: Location

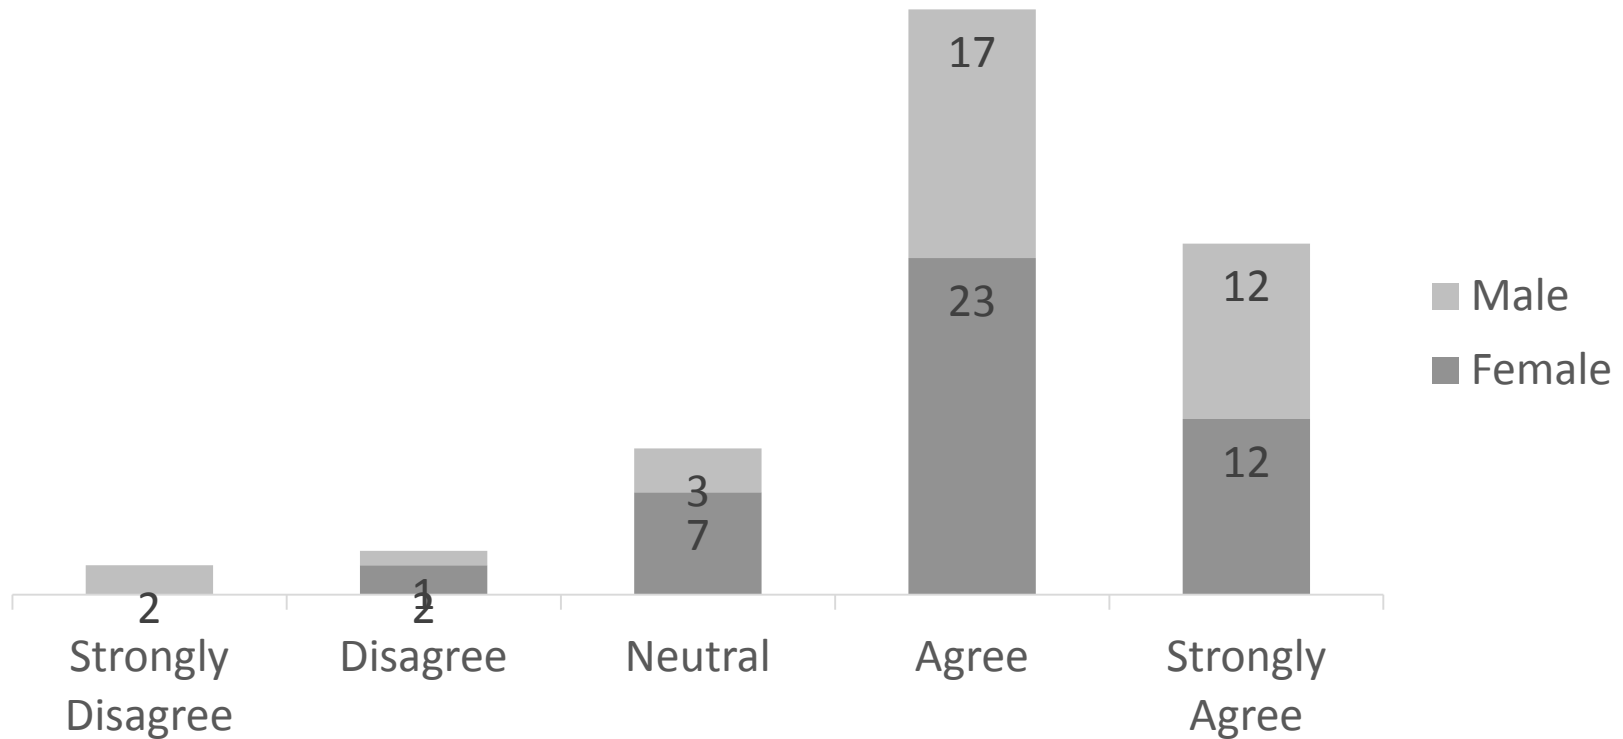

Volunteers + Logistics + Information Technology

Results of the e-survey

Always First, Always Ready, Always There

You felt comfortable with the device mounted on your head

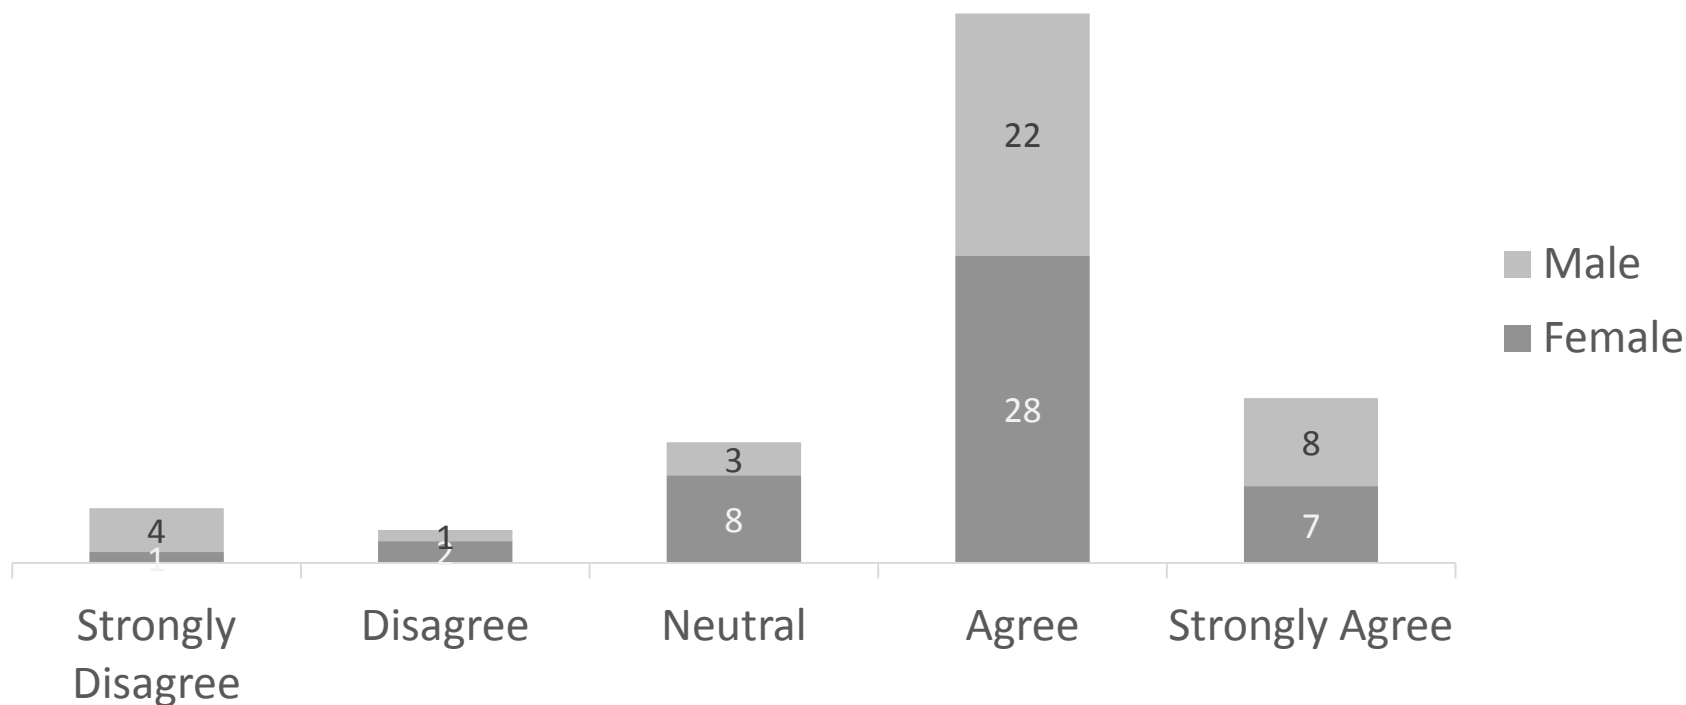

You felt comfortable with the device mounted on your head

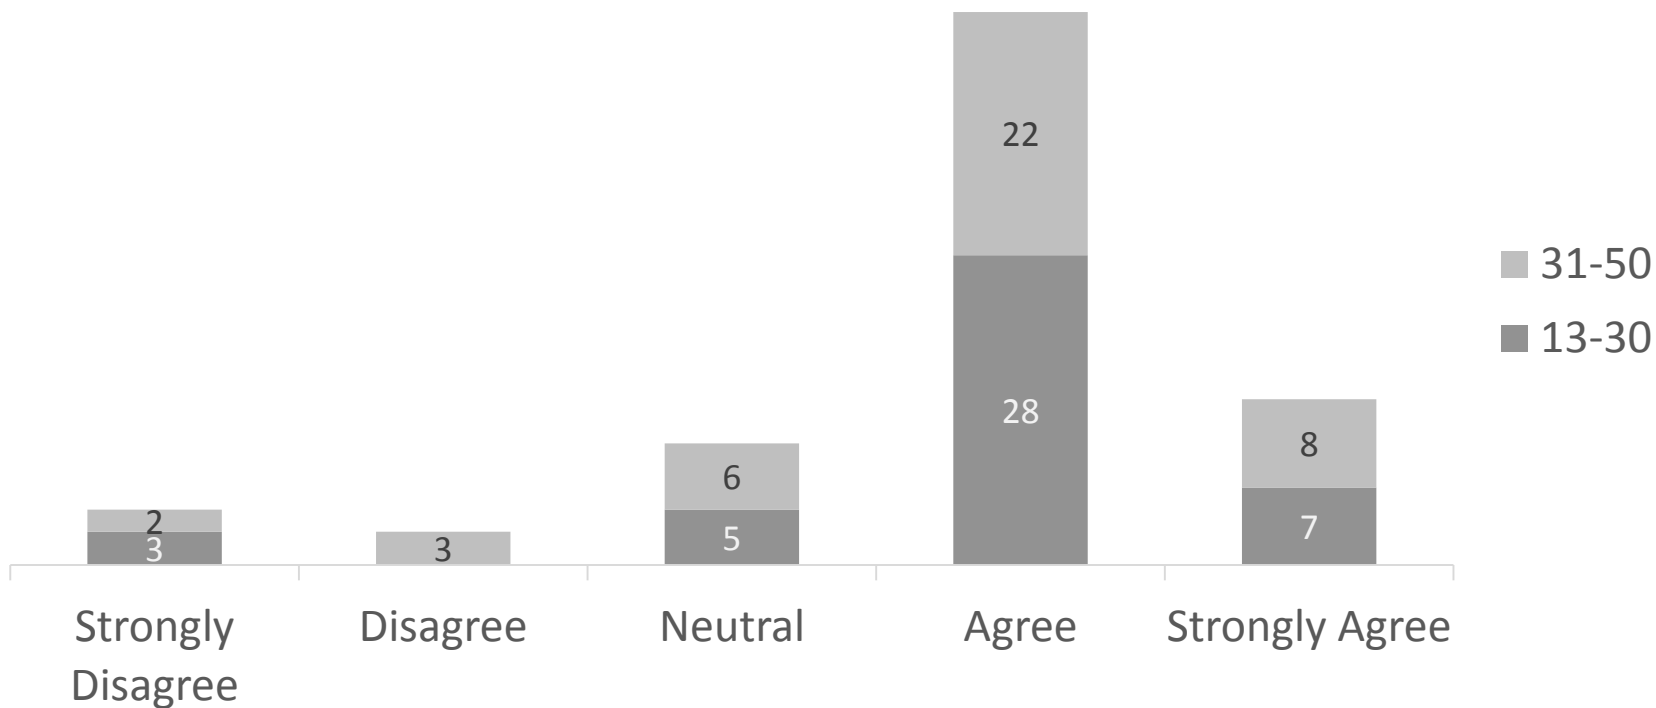

You were able to easily use the controls

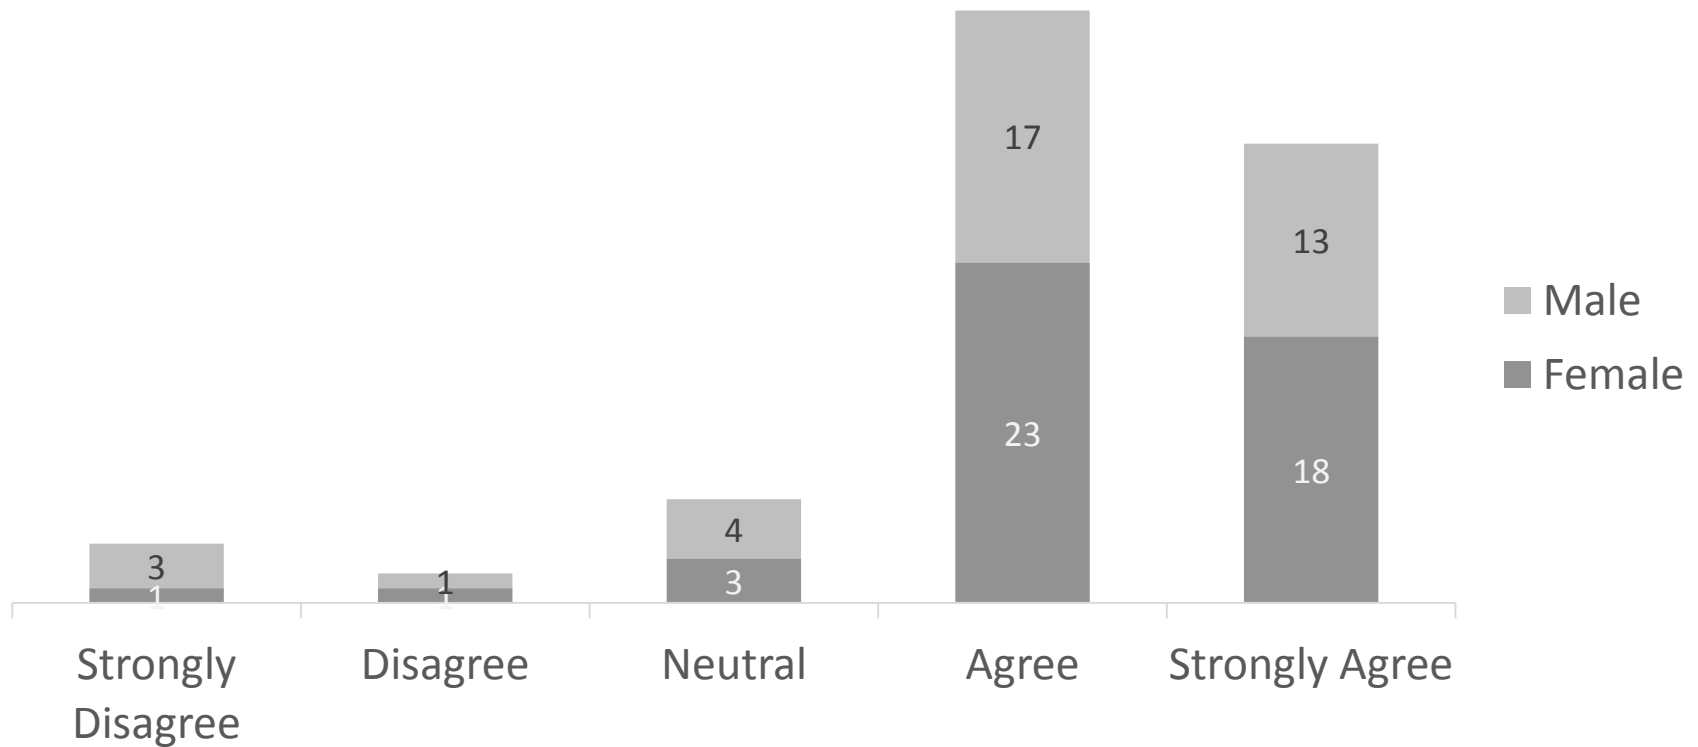

You were able to easily use the controls

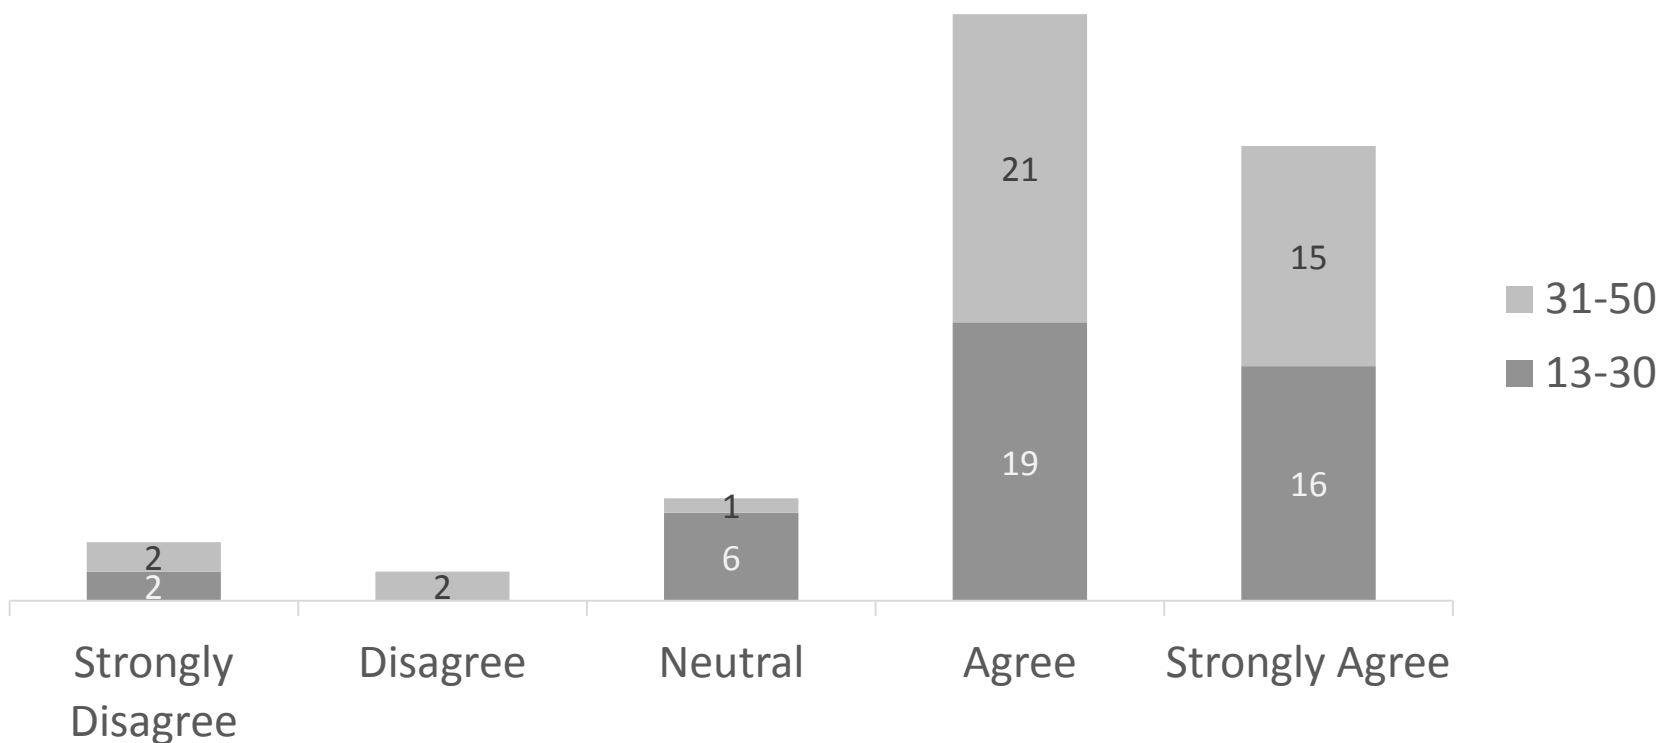

The instructions were clear and easily understood

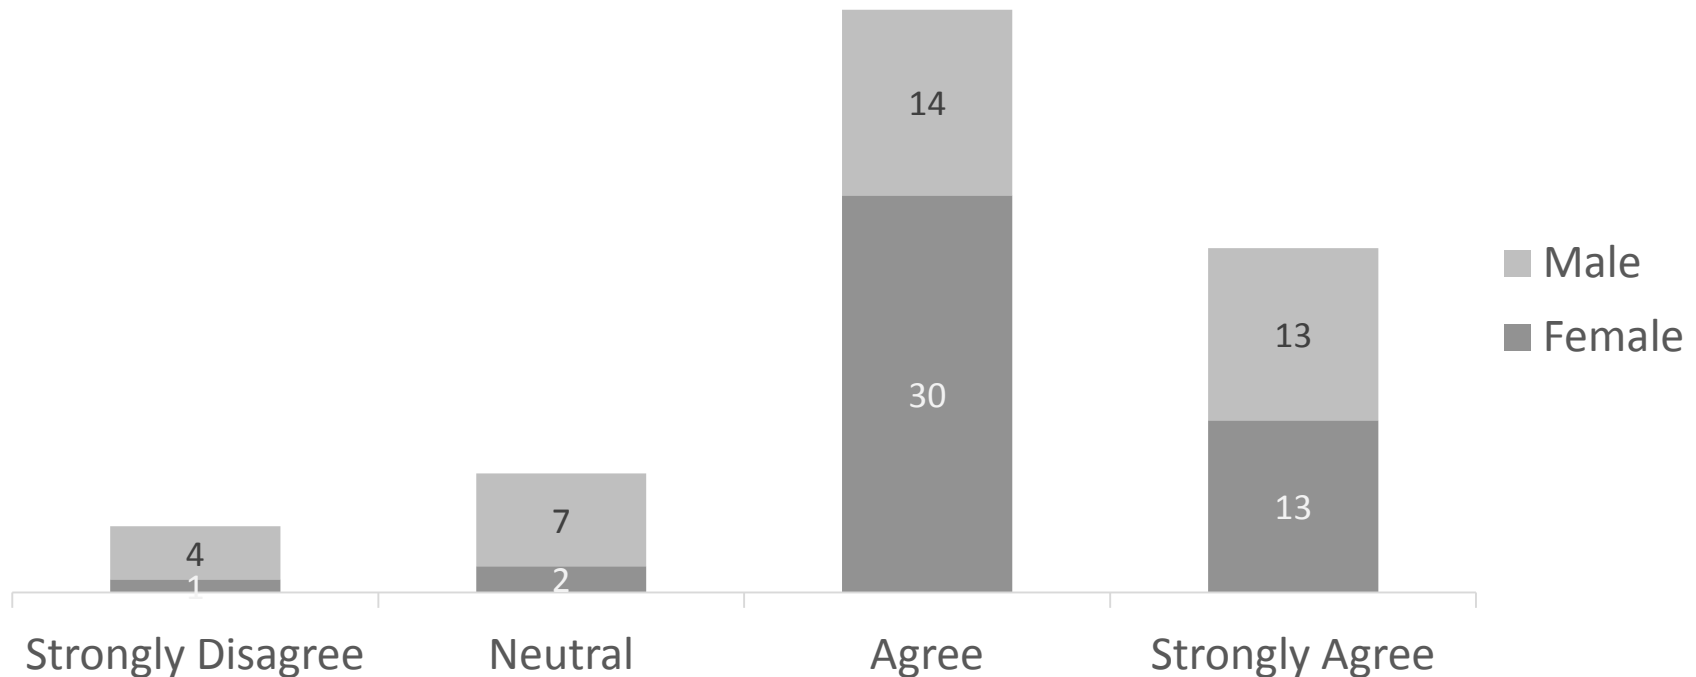

The instructions were clear and easily understood

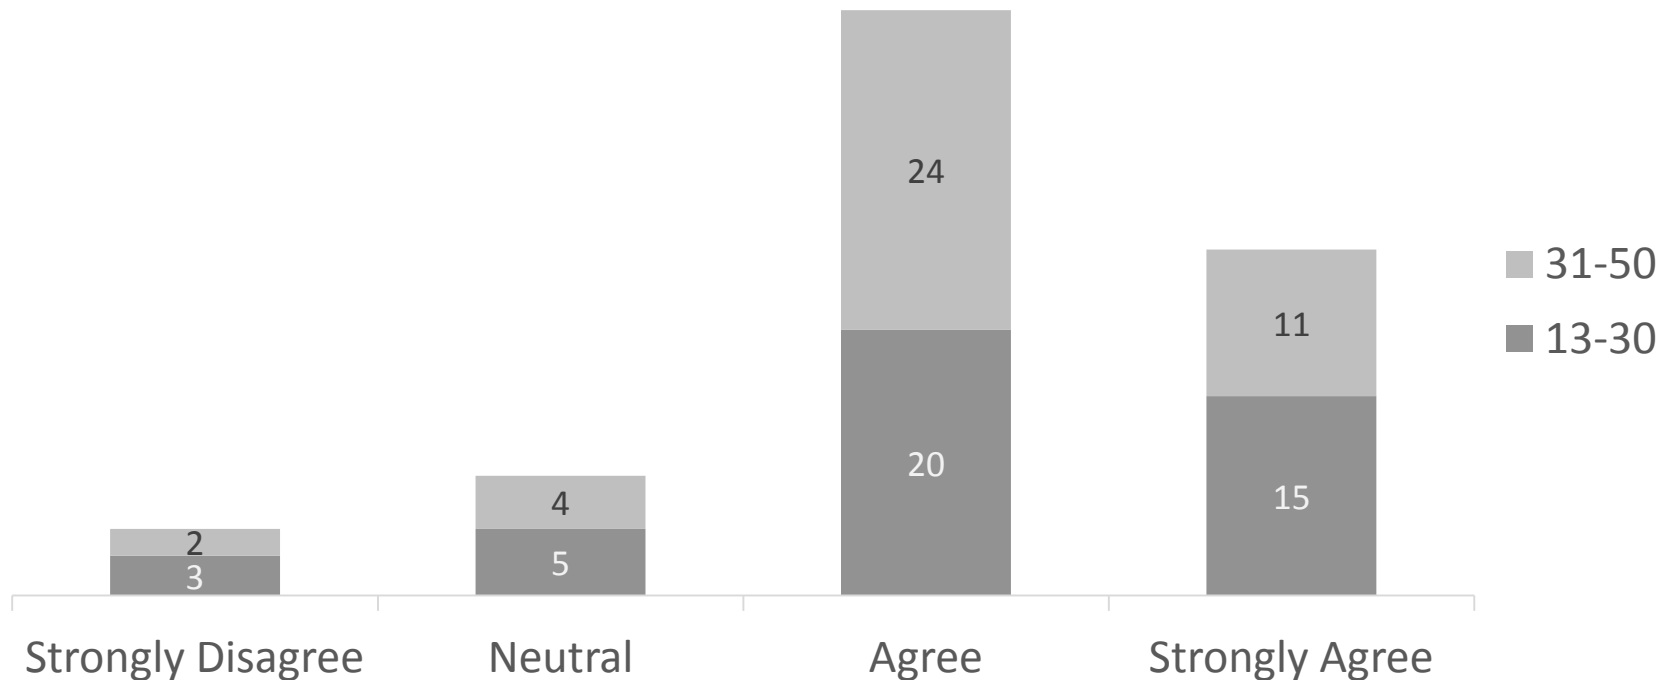

The graphics are appropriate to the Philippine Context

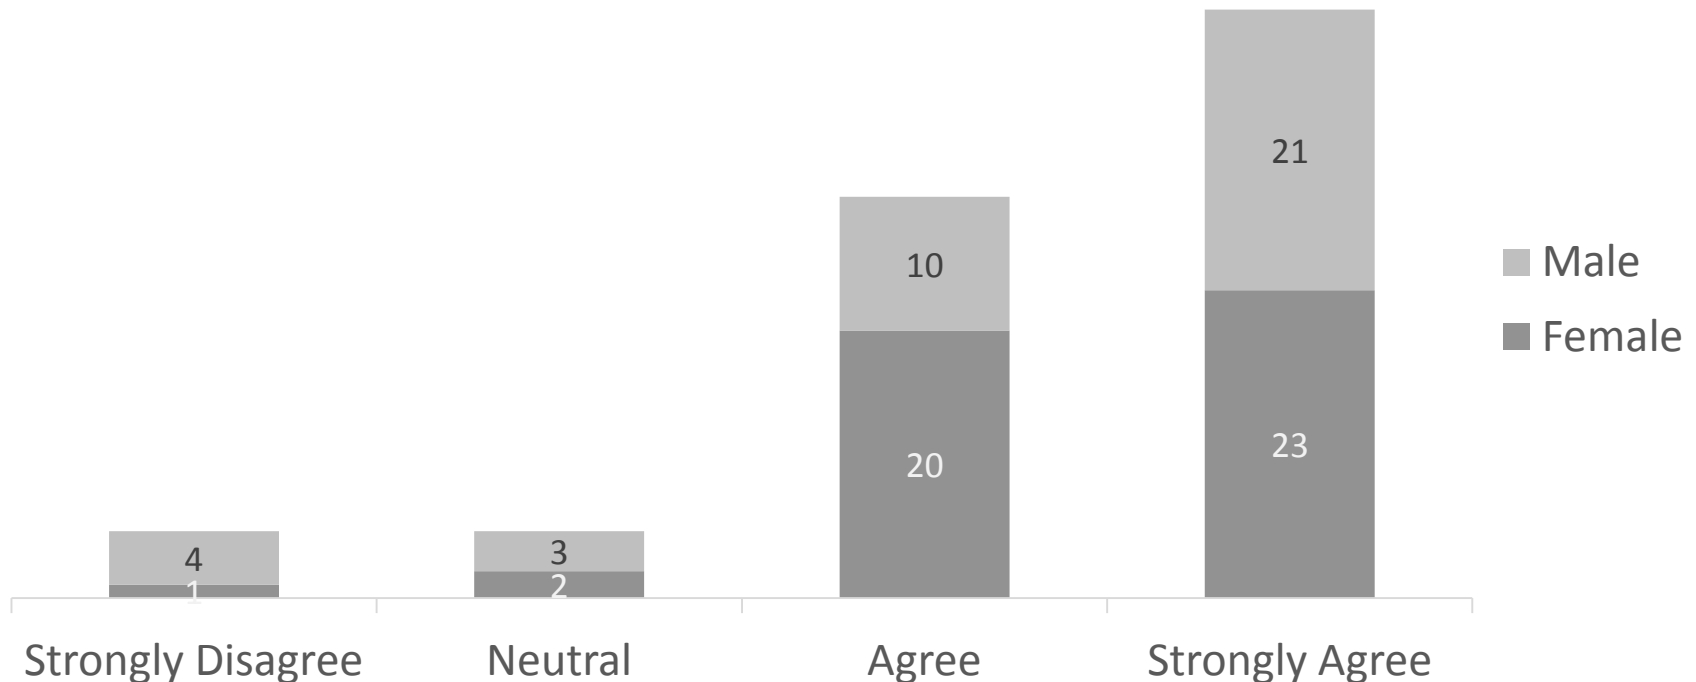

The graphics are appropriate to the Philippine Context

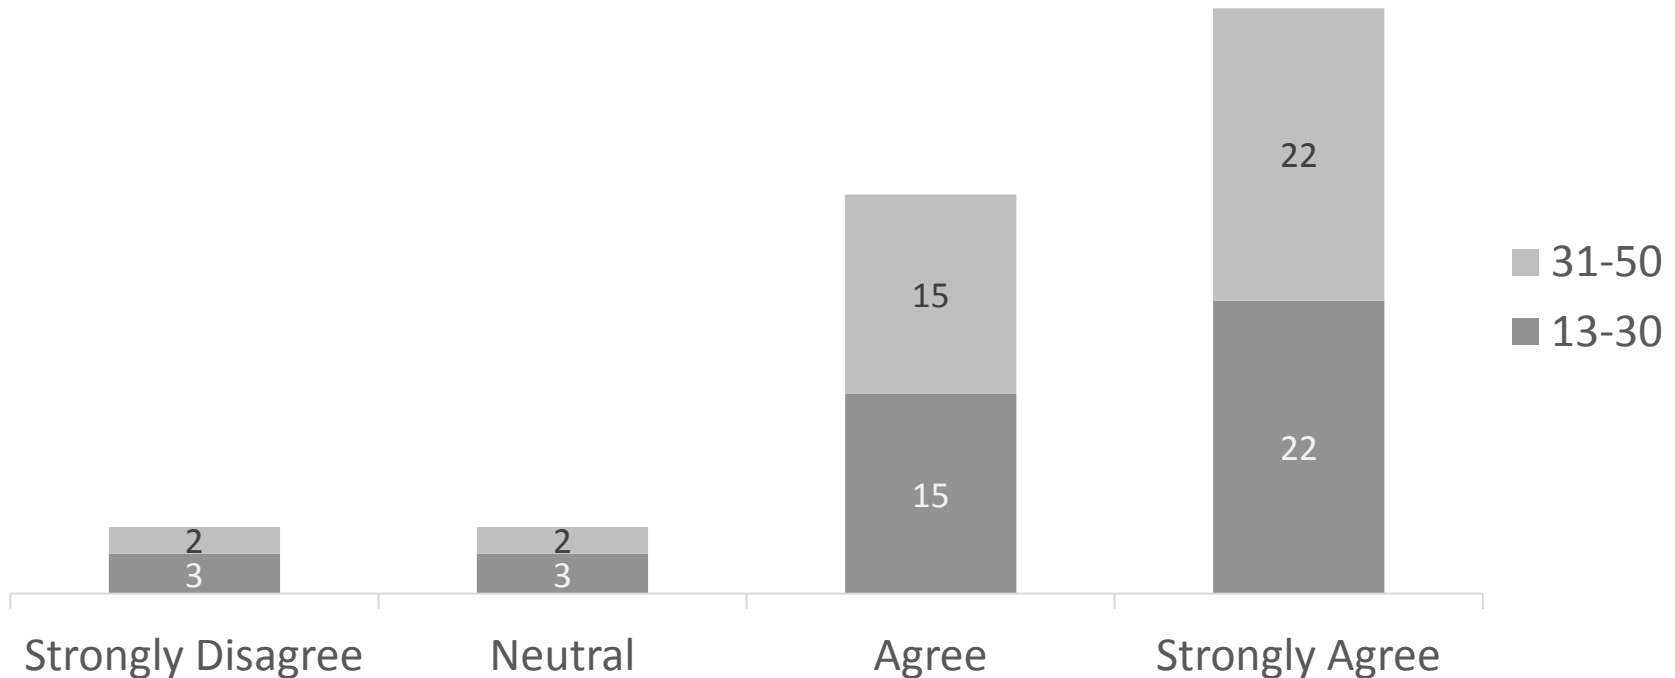

You have learned something from using the VR device

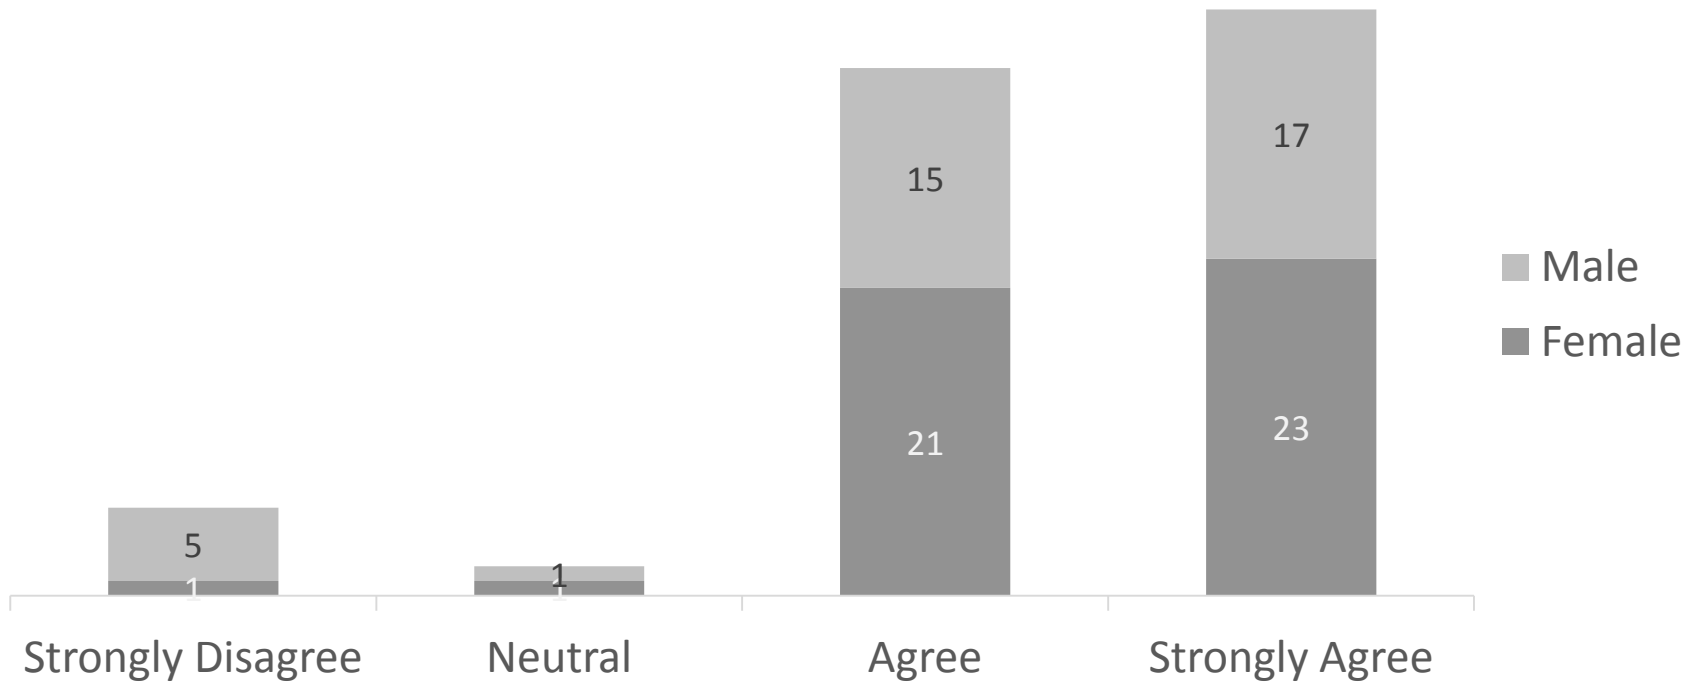

You have learned something from using the VR device

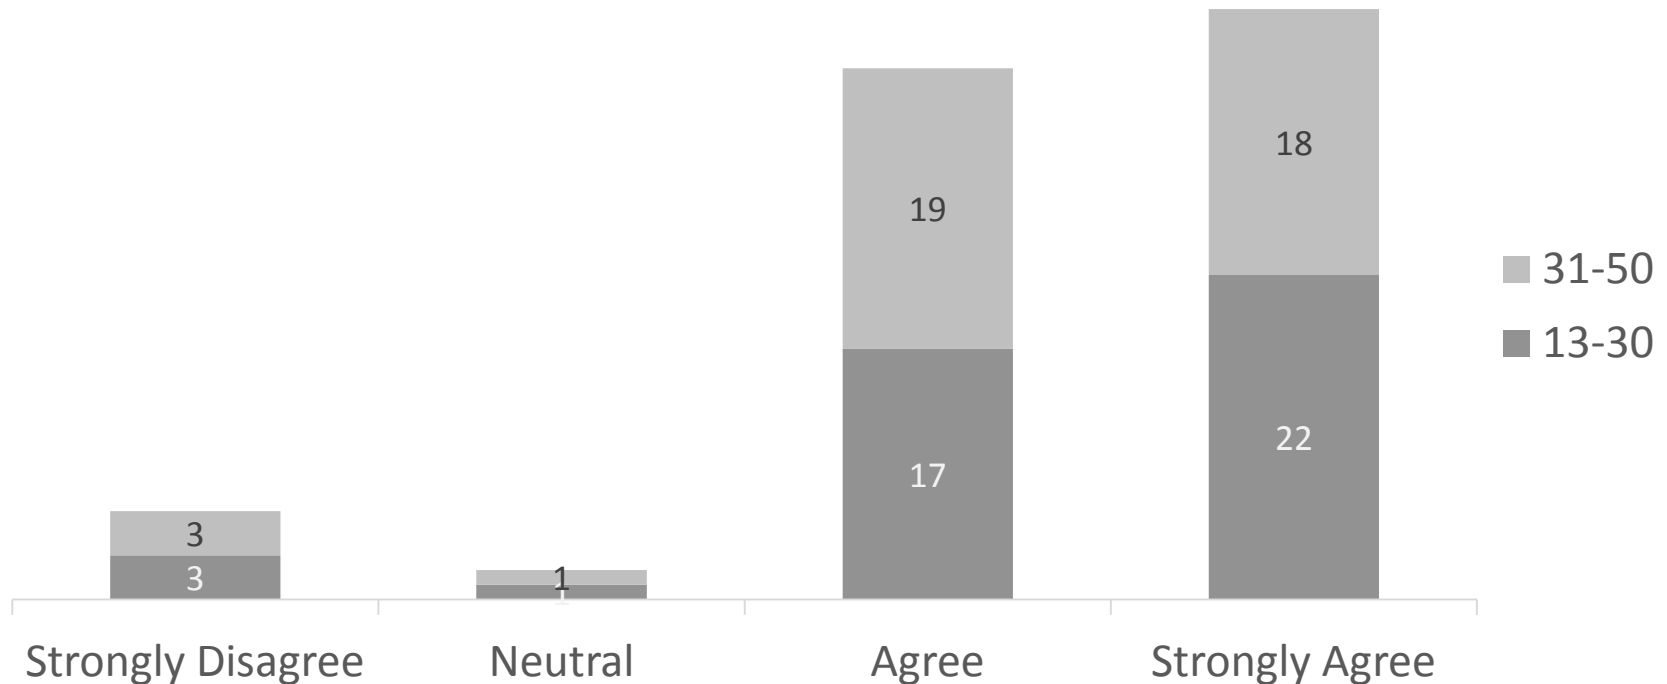

The VR device is useful for disaster preparedness and risk reduction education

The VR device is useful for disaster preparedness and risk reduction education

Volunteers + Logistics + Information Technology

Feedback from Test Users and Next Steps

Always First, Always Ready, Always There

Questions moving forward

- How to scale up?
 - Test for effectiveness
- How to sustain?
- How to make it more inclusive?